Memories came fast and sudden as we sang Wondrous it was as we ran out and through the open gates How far we roamed like chariots we moved upon the stone The chase!

On chariots we roamed Memories came back like echoes from our past Stand beneath the trees and gaze up and through the canopies How far we strayed within day Wonderous it was as we ran out beyond the brick and stone How far we came to reach these peaks to watch the faint forms trail

56
